Text: Philippians 2:12-13

“<sup>12</sup>Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, <sup>13</sup>for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.” (ESV)

While there are those who seek to reconcile every single doctrine in a rational way, to do so can far too often lead to extremes. We must come to grips with the fact that there is tension in the life of a Christ-follower. Our text today deals with the theme of God’s sovereignty and the place we play in the process.

We see this same dual emphasis throughout the New Testament.

Cross References: 1 Peter 1:3-10; 1 Corinthians 15:10; Galatians 2:20 with Colossians 1:28-29.... An Old Testament example is found at the base of the Red Sea with Moses and the people of God. SEE Exodus 14:13-16...
