Love Shows Compassion (1)

Text: Luke 7:11-17

Albert Einstein (not a follower of Christ) once said, “I am a Jew, but I am enthralled by the luminous figure of the Nazarene...No man can read the Gospels without feeling the actual presence of Jesus. His personality pulsates in every word.”

Aim: To love like Jesus. No one did or does it better. ☺

“Soon afterward he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd went with him. <sup>12</sup>As he drew near to the gate of the town, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and a considerable crowd from the town was with her. <sup>13</sup>And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, “Do not weep.” <sup>14</sup>Then he came up and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, “Young man, I say to you, arise.” <sup>15</sup>And the dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. <sup>16</sup>Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has arisen among us!” and “God has visited his people!” <sup>17</sup>And this report about him spread through the whole of Judea and all the surrounding country.”
